2.	The long-standing schism between YUN Tse and Hawongga, Vice-Chairman of the IMAG, has recently grown wider. YUN has been agitating for the approval by the Chinese Communist authorities of a larger sphere of control, one to include areas west of Wangyehmiao; where his personal following could make his position more secure. He is known as a member of the Chinese branch of the Chinese Communist Party (assepposed to the international faction headed by LI Limsan) with strong sympathy toward MAO Tse-tung. Hawongga, despite his racial sympathies, is oriented toward the Mongolian People's Republic and dependence upon the USSR.
